CLASSICAL KIDS® TEACHING EDITION

"I have finally found the vehicle that will reach young people."

Mary Ellen Yost, Crestlane Elementary School, Oregon

Susan Hammond's Classical Kids® uses enchanting story-telling and freshly recorded music to bring alive the life, times, and music of Bach, Vivaldi, Handel, Beethoven, Mozart, and Tchaikovsky. The series also explores the Merlin legend in Song of the Unicorn (narrated by Academy Award winner, Jeremy Irons), and children's poetry and singing in Daydreams and Lullabies. Now for the first time, the CDs, DVDs, Teacher's Notes, visual elements and Music Only CD are brought together for homeschoolers and classrooms from Grades K-8.

Includes 9 Classical Kids CDs, 2 DVDs (Mr. Bach Comes to Call and Beethoven Lives Upstairs), and 3 Bonus Discs to share with your colleagues in other subject areas and grades:

Teacher's Resources CD-ROM: Print as you go! Includes:

- Comprehensive Teacher's Notes: Features background information, discussion topics, musical scores, age-appropriate activities, music appreciation and worksheets.
- Scripts for each CD: Print off sections for read-along, ESL programs and drama.
- Slideshow Discussion Points: To move students from passive watching to active discussion and art activities.

Glorious Slideshow: This exclusive DVD offers hundreds of pictures of art, architecture and fashion from the times of the great composers. Ideal for use in art and social studies classes.

Music Only CD: Use for musical analysis, drama, or ambient music.

The Classical Kids® Teaching Edition meets or exceeds most state and provincial standards for arts education. Developed in coordination with the U.S. National Standard for Arts Education.
