The Horse in Harry's Room

by the author of Danny and the Dinosaur

Syd Hoff

Harry had a horse in his room.
Nobody knew.

He could ride him in a circle
without knocking over the chair or the dresser.

He could jump him over the bed
without hitting his head on the ceiling.

“Oh, it’s great to have a horse,”
said Harry.

“I hope I will always have him.
I hope he will always stay.”

His mother looked into Harry's room
to see what he was doing.
She did not see the horse.

His father looked into Harry's room
to see what he was doing.
He did not see the horse.
